

Service Industry Recovery

Free Child Care for Service Industry Workers

The Texas Workforce Commission has approved $500 million to support a new Service Industry Recovery (SIR) program to help low-wage workers in specific service-related industries. You may qualify for FREE CHILD CARE FOR ONE YEAR if you meet the income guidelines, and can provide proof of employment in a identified service industry and the citizenship/immigration status of the children needing care.

Accommodation & Food Service

Examples of Industries: Hotels, Restaurants and Food Delivery

Arts, Entertainment and Recreation

Examples of Industries: Fitness Centers, Movie Theaters and Amusement Parks

Retail

Examples of Industries: Clothing Stores, Gas Stations and Grocery Stores

Applications are available on dfwjobs.com/childcare

All families continue to have access to TWC's regular low-income child care subsidy program. If you have questions or would like to speak with someone about eligibility requirements for the SIR program, please call (800) 234-9306 or send an email to childcareSIR@dfwjobs.com